(a) whether eighty thousand cases of General Provident Fund are lying pending;

(b) if so, the scheme formulated by the Government for speedy disposl of these cases; and

(c) the reasons of pending of cases for such a long time?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE OF DEPARTMENT OF PERSONNEL AND TRAINING AND DEPARTMENT OF PENSION AND PENSIONERS` WELFARE IN THE MINISTRY OF PERSONNEL, PUBLIC GRIEVANCES AND PENSIONS (SMT. VASUNDHARA RAJE)

(a) : Settlement of General Provident Fund Cases pertaining to Central Government Servants are done on decentralised basis. The concerned Ministies/Departments from where a Government servant retires/dies are responsible for ensuring settlement of cases without delay. The statistics regarding pending cases are, therefore, not maintained on a centralised basis. However, as per latest information received from the various Ministries/Departments 2535 cases for settlement of GPF are pending. Out of this, 1153 cases were received in November, 2000.

(b)&(c) : Payment of GPF on superannuation in respect of retiring Government servants/death in harness are settled immediately on retirement/death as the case may be. However, there could be marginal delays in certain cases for want of complete information. The disposal of outstanding General Provident Fund cases is monitored closely by the concerned Ministries/Departments.
